

Supervisors Pledge Better Program Of Preventive Medicine

The Board of Supervisors of Alameda County last Friday learned that an improved program of preventive medicine for rural Alameda County is urgently wanted, when more than a hundred persons crowded the supervisors' hearing room at the court house in Oakland.

The board listened to reports by medical men and interested citizens regarding the proposed expanded health program and then the individual supervisors committed themselves to "do something" about the problem.

HERE'S WAY TO COMMEMORATE WAR VETERANS

(Contributed by Mrs. Carl Mohn, publicity chairman, American Legion Auxiliary.)

More people in Washington Township are becoming aware of an ambitious project which was sponsored by the C.S.F. group in Washington Union High School.

The project is a "Memorial Art Gallery" which was dedicated about a year ago by the Washington Township Legion Post in honor of the veterans of World War I and World War II.

The whole gallery is the memorial but individual pictures may be in Memorial to others than soldiers or in honor of the living.

So far a number of organizations have responded to requests for donations for purchasing pictures.

The picture "Sandcart" by George Bellows, a famous American artist, was the last picture to be hung. Funds for this picture were donated by the Washington Township Country Club and hung in honor of this organization.

HIGH SCHOOL FIRST

The Washington High School P.T.A. was one of the first to donate funds and the picture by Peter Hurd, "The Waterhole," hangs in the gallery in honor of that organization.

The School Board, the Washington Union High School Student Body, the C.S.F. group and the class of 1945, have all contributed pictures for the gallery.

The Memorial Art Gallery is well established.

The American Legion Post and Auxiliary of this township are behind the project one hundred percent.

The members of these groups know from past experience how easy it is for communities and individuals to forget sacrifices made by veterans.

20 GIVE ALL

About twenty young men in our community gave "a full measure of devotion" to their country.

These young men wanted to live even as you and I do. They would not doubt have grown into useful citizens, fond fathers and husbands. But they gave their "last full measure of devotion," not because they wanted to die but because they wanted to live.

We are left to carry on! In order to especially honor them and "Lest we forget" the Legion Post and Auxiliary are sponsoring, raising money for a special memorial to these twenty young men of Washington Township.

The memorial is to be in the form of a group of pictures hung in the Memorial Art Gallery. There will be in this special group a picture for each gold star veteran and these pictures will be known as the Gold Star Group.

The Post and Auxiliary are asking that the people of our township make voluntary contributions in any amount to help out with this fund.

It is hoped that the money will all be raised by popular subscriptions.

$600 REQUIRED

A conservative estimate is about $600 required for purchasing suitable pictures.

If those who read this feel grateful to our former citizens of Washington Township, who are now remembered as Gold Star veterans, and wish to have a part in this memorial, kindly send your donations to Frank Viets, Newark; J. V. Gool, Centerville; Stella Benbow, Irvington; or E. D. Bristow, Niles.

At a later date a community dedication will take place.

Plans are being made to make the gallery an Art Center of the township.

To start the ball rolling, the C. S.F. group have voted $25 for this fund.

BOGGS REPORTS ON COUNTY ZONING, BUILDING CODE

Work of the Alameda County Planning Commission toward completion of a county zoning ordinance and a county building code ordinance is progressing, although slowly, according to word received by The Register from Wallace Boggs, secretary of the commission and county surveyor.

"Field surveys showing present land use of all land in the county have been made and plotted," according to Boggs. "A preliminary draft of an Ordinance has been prepared and is now being analyzed by the Planning Commission's legal advisor from the District Attorneys office."

"When this has been put into final shape the Commission will call public hearings upon the proposed ordinance."

"I cannot give you an estimate as to the probable time until such an ordinance will become effective as the legal procedure is somewhat long and drawn out; after passing the Planning Commission, it still must be subject to hearings by the Board of Supervisors."

As for progress toward adoption of a unified building code for unincorporated county areas, Boggs states:

"A Building Code Advisory Committee, consisting primarily of technical men, has been appointed by the Board of Supervisors to analyze the provisions of a proposed building code. This committee will undoubtedly get to work at once and it is hoped will be able to produce a code which will be reasonably satisfactory to all interests."

"The Planning Commission greatly appreciates the interest of your community in planning and the constructive work which was done by your group in getting the proposed Zoning Ordinance under way."

CENTERVILLE BOYS SEE STOVES MADE

Centerville Boy Scouts learned how stoves are made when they visited the plant of the James Graham Manufacturing Company on Thursday, March 7, and followed the manufacture of a stove from blast furnace to shipping department.

The tour was arranged for the boys by Rev. E. A. Groves, activities head of the troop committee, of which Arthur Belshaw is chairman. John Marshall of the Graham company conducted the tour.

HERE'S CHANCE TO GET RID OF PAPER

A township-wide paper drive will be conducted this Saturday and Sunday, March 16 and 17, by the Boy Scouts, under the direction of their leaders.

Those who wish to dispose of paper should leave it in bundles on their front porches, or in the case of those who live out of town, paper will be picked up if any of the following are notified: L. L. Lewis, Fred Duffie, or John Cattaneo, Niles;

George Scamman or R. A. Griffin, Irvington.

Phil Sousa or Arthur Belshaw, Centerville.

C. Gunn or J. Truscott, Newark.

Dave Janeiro, Decoto.

F. E. Lewis, Alvarado.

STEVENSON TALKS AT ROTARY CLUB

Rotarians yesterday were addressed at their weekly luncheon meeting by Max Stevenson of Centerville, recently discharged from service in the Navy with the rank of lieutenant commander.

Stevenson reviewed the experiences of the carrier force in which he served on a tour of duty of 22 months in the South Pacific. He described the landing on and capture of a small island which served as a bomber base, and recounted a number of anecdotes of his experiences there.

The natives, he said, were in grass skirts when the island was taken, but it was not long, he said, before they were wearing G.I. clothes. In summing up, Stevenson said the South Pacific islands comprised a fine place for natives but as for him he preferred California, particularly Washington township.

WARNING!

Dog owners! Beware of that vicious pest, the dog poisoner! He is out doing his dirty work again.

This week, two dogs belonging to Mrs. Andrus on Third street, Niles, were poisoned. One dog died; the other is in the dog hospital in Hayward, fighting for his life. Both were pronounced by the veterinarian called to have been poisoned by strychnine.

No words can describe the contemptible act perpetrated on helpless creatures. If he is caught—and there is reason to believe that he may be—no punishment can be too harsh.

In the meantime, dog owners should keep careful watch of their pets, especially in the vicinity of Third street.

VETS MAY FILE FOR EXEMPTION

Veterans who wish to avail themselves of county tax exemptions will have the opportunity to file for exemption with Marsten Dassel of the county assessor's office in Niles from March 25 to 29 between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m., at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Also eligible for exemption are widows of men who served in the armed forces, widowed mothers (there being no widow), and pensioned widows, fathers and mothers. Application must be filed annually between the first Monday in March and the last Monday in June, according to Dassel.

The applicant must be a legal resident of California and must present discharge or other evidence of active service. The legal description of all real property owned by the veteran or his wife is required. Failure to file within the prescribed time waives the exemption.

WARM SPRINGS STORE GOES TO MISSION WOMEN

Due to ill health, A. Lawrence who took over Brown's store in Warm Springs last August, has transferred the business to Mrs. Virginia Felecinio and Mrs. Virginia Steinmetz, both residents of Mission San Jose.

The two women expect to conduct the business in the same way that it has been conducted in the past.

Before Lawrence took it over, the Browns had had the store for about 30 years.

NEW ENGLAND LINKED TO CALIFORNIA

MAYHEW FAMILY LORE SPANS CONTINENT

The name "Mayhew" is a familiar one in the township. It is inextricably linked to the early history of development here. So much so, in fact, that familiar landmarks bear the name. "Mayhew's Landing," for example.

It is rather odd then, and worthy of some note, that way on the other side of the continent, in a little town called Edgartown, on Martha's Vineyard Island, Massachusetts, the name "Mayhew" is of equal importance in the history of that part of Massachusetts. And still more oddly, it is the very same Mayhew family!

This brief historical introduction concerning the name Mayhew is given in view of the fact that a very interesting bit of lore came to light recently in that nationally famous country weekly, Martha's Vineyard Gazette, published in Edgartown.

It seems that the citizens of Edgartown, reluctant to see one of the fine old island homes—the Fisher-Mayhew house—dissolve in decay, purchased it under a stockholders agreement from the owner, Miss Annie F. Mayhew, a first cousin of Mrs. Florence Mayhew Shinn of Niles. Miss Mayhew, who lives in Edgartown, but not in the old home, was too old and infirm to keep the property in repair.

The beautiful old house, erected in 1725, is considered one of the finest examples of eighteenth century architecture in New England. The plan is to devote the house to appropriate commercial use, such as shops for which the tradition and atmosphere will be valuable.

Completion of the sale will mark the end of a long period of anxiety during which the future of this property, of such size and location that its development would inevitably affect the character of the town in a decisive way, was uncertain.

Of more interest locally, perhaps, is the fact that the Miss Mayhew, mentioned above, was born near Mayhew's Landing, that later became Newark, California. Her father, Joseph A. Mayhew, and Mrs. Shinn's father, Harrison Allen Mayhew, were brothers, and came

CENTERVILLE C. C. INTERESTED IN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Another organization to become interested in the establishment of a general hospital in Washington Township is the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, which discussed the subject at its meeting Monday evening at the justice court. The Country Club of Washington Township brought the project of a township hospital into the limelight at its meeting last week.

Appointed by President Loren Marriott to inquire into possibilities of a local hospital were Dr. G. S. Holeman, Dallas Paul and Robert Moore.

Extension of dead-end streets in Centerville was also discussed, along with the need for new streets paralleling Main street.

The organization voted to contribute $20 to the current Red Cross drive.

Regular meeting dates for the Chamber of Commerce were established, with meetings to be held on the first and third Thursdays.

COUNTRY CLUB ALL SET FOR ANNIVERSARY

Invitations are out this week to members of the Country Club of Washington Township to attend the reciprocity luncheon and fiftieth anniversary celebration, April 2, marking the 50th year since the founding of the club.

Fifty years ago, in 1896, a small group of women of common interests, started meeting together for cultural pursuits and for social intercourse. They met at various homes throughout the township, and discussed art, literature, and music.

Eventually they confined their meetings to one home, that of Mrs. Fleda O. Bunting of Centerville. At each meeting, the members paid a small fee into a fund which was set aside as a building fund.

The fund grew, and by 1914 there was enough to build the long-awaited building, at which time an active life-membership drive was put on and at least 20 became life members, for the purpose of erecting the building.

By this time, the club had entered community affairs, and was more than just a social club pursuing the cultural arts. It is generally accepted, in fact, that the Country Club was instrumental in starting the Travelers' Aid which became nationwide.

In 1919, the Club went to work and organized the county probation office, and still later, was largely responsible for putting over the bond issue for the high school.

By 1925 the Club members felt that they were taking such an active part in community affairs that a change in the by-laws was warranted, to include community service. This was done.

Since then the Club has participated in many community affairs, although it still is, essentially, a social club. It now numbers approximately 130 members. During the war, there was a representation of club members in almost every form of war work.

Although the list of charter members has been lost through the years, it might be of interest to mention that the following were the first officers: president, Mrs. Mary C. Allen; vice-president, Mrs. J. E. Thane; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Alvina Crane; chairman of executive committee, Mrs. Emily Mayhew with Mrs. Grace Huxley and Mrs. Agnes Crosby assisting; chairman of music committee, Mrs. Thane, assisted by Mrs. Helen Ford and Mrs. Joe Tyson; chairman of committee to watch bills before legislature, Mrs. Charles Shinn.

OLDEST MEMBER

The oldest living member of the club is Mrs. Annie B. Haley, 92, who now lives at the Masonic Home in Decoto.

Guests at the reciprocity and anniversary luncheon will include the presidents of all the Alameda County Women's Clubs, numbering 28; the Alameda district president; the Alameda County president; and the two state officers who live in Alameda county—Mrs. Frank Dusterberry, chairman of state trustees, and Mrs. Gerald Whitaker, recording-secretary of the state federation.

The officers of the Country Club will act as hostesses for the afternoon, and will be assisted by the post presidents.

The luncheon committee has

Hospital Is Urged For Township By Local Doctors

Township physicians and surgeons this week gave their active support to the project of establishing a general hospital in Washington Township at a meeting in Dr. E. C. Grau's office in Niles. Attending besides Dr. Grau were Drs. Lyle Buehler, E. M. Grimmer, G. S. Holeman, and Major Merle Buehler.

Two alternative means of financing construction of a local hospital were discussed, one as a public project by means of a bond issue and tax assessment and the other by private subscription. The former plan appeared to deserve greater favor.

It was concluded to ask the support of the Washington Township Planning Committee on the hospital project, which in turn would co-ordinate the expected support of various town organizations. Also suggested was that the services of an attorney be engaged to act as counsel on the project.

Interest of the professional men in the establishment of a hospital was communicated to Chairman L. R. Bateman of the township planning committee, who inquired of the district attorney's office concerning possibilities of the formation of a hospital district in the township under which arrangement bonds could be issued and taxes levied to pay for construction and possible operation costs in excess of revenues.

The district attorney found that under a law passed last year by the state legislature a hospital district may be formed, but only in a county with a population of less than 200,000. This would exclude any area in Alameda county from forming a hospital district.

Possibility that local influence might be used to have the law amended at the next session of the state legislature so that such a district could be formed in this county has been indicated.

Batman has informed the doctors that as soon as fairly complete information is available the Washington Township Planning Committee would call a meeting at the high school to which all interested persons would be invited to consider means of establishing a township hospital.

Holland stated that there will be free food and refreshments and that music will be furnished by a good orchestra.

NEWARK CHURCH
TO BE RENOVATED

Last Sunday the Newark Presbyterian Church adopted plans to bring the church auditorium up-to-date. The present interior is of the early twentieth century design, and embodies puritanic ideals. The proposed plans are quite modern and will enrich the atmosphere of worship. The contractor's figure is $350.00 and as soon as this is subscribed work will proceed, and it is hoped, finished before Easter Sunday.

Next Sunday, the second of the Lenten Period, Rev. James M. Brown will speak of Christ's moving on toward the Cross. The message will stress lessons to be learned from that period of the life of Christ when He had turned away from the crowds and taught the Disciples. This service will take place at 10 a.m., and Church School follows at 11. Junior Christian Endeavor meets at 6:15 p.m. and Young People's at 7.

From Where I Sit

By FRANK OPINION

Well, folks, it's kinda nice to be back again, especially since I have a letter waitin' for me in the mail. The lady who writes the letter signs her name as "Miss High Hope."

Miss High writes about gossip. Now men, don't stop readin', thinkin' this has nothing to do with you, because, brother, you're in for something of a shock when you read what Miss High writes about men gossipin'.

Dear Frank Opinion:

It is going to take courage to write you this letter because I know I'm just as guilty as any I am criticizing. I believe it does us all good to admit our faults every once in a while, don't you? to bring them out into the open, examine them, talk about them and try to find ways to correct or at least modify them. Have you read "The Prophet" by Kahlil Gibran where he speaks of talking? He says you talk when you cease to be at peace with your thoughts; and when you can no longer dwell in the solitude of your heart you live in your lips, and sound is a diversion and a pastime. Quoting from the prophet again, he says, "And in much of your talking, thinking is half murdered. There are those among you who seek the talkative through fear of being alone. The silence of aloneness reveals to their eyes their naked selves and they would escape. And there are those who talk, and without knowledge or forethought, reveal a truth which they themselves do not understand. And there are those who have the truth within them, but they tell it not in words. When you meet your friend on the street or at your favorite market place, let the spirit in you move your lips and direct your tongue."

If we find that a fault or vice hurts only us, that is our own private business to be settled between God and us. There are very few vices so confined; usually we include at least one other person. And when our faults affect an entire community, then it is time for us all to pause and consider: and am I blameless in this common vice; am I wrecking that friendly spirit of working together in my community; am I helping discontent, unhappiness, discord, jealousy to flourish in my community? Does this quotation sound familiar, "for every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison."?

Yes, I'm talking about gossip. Now men, don't settle back into your favorite armchair and say (with a sigh of relief), "Well!—this is for women to read—NOT ME. We men don't gossip!"

Yes, you do too! I have positive proof, so there!

For the past year and a half I have been associated in my work with six, sometimes eight, men. They're grand fellows—considerate, courteous, intelligent, full of fun and pep. Do they gossip? Yes. Do they talk about people? Yes! They'll stand for hours talking about the terrible way the Boss runs the business! How does this differ from Mrs. Jones calling Mrs. Smith to the back fence to whisper about the tell-tale gray of Mrs. White's washing?

Have you men ever tried to help the boss over and above the amount of your pay check? Have you women ever tried to help Mrs. White over and above your polite "Good Morning" or "Good Evening"? And have you nations ever tried to know the peoples of other nations as individuals and not as prototypes?

It is said that during the bombing of England that titled women mixed with charwomen in the bomb shelters, that lords helped ditch diggers clear the debris from the streets of London.

Does it take war to show people that there should be no class distinction, that insidious foe to true Christian living? Is it only in times of national emergency that we can push from our minds our petty grievances, selfish ambitions, and small minded goals to encompass such broad horizons as "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone..." "Love thy neighbor as thyself" ... "Speak evil of no man"?

I believe it is quite true that we talk to keep from thinking. A half hour of concentrated, intense thought on any scientific, economic or political problem and most of us are sound asleep in our arm chairs! Try it and see!

No! Most of us are interested primarily in ourselves and jealous of others. So we use gossip as a weapon, dangling like the sword of Damocles over the heads of our "friends."

Balance That Budget!

Alarmed at the menace of National bankruptcy through continued Federal deficit spending, 16 members of the Senate and House have called upon the Congress to balance the Federal budget for the coming fiscal year, beginning July 1. Pointing out that 17 billion dollars of the proposed 35-billion budget "appears only as tentative estimates without detail," the nine Republicans and seven Democrats declared:

"We cannot afford to spend money we do not have. We cannot afford to continue war agencies overdue for demobilization, or war function of doubtful value in civil agencies. A determined Congress, with citizen backing, can find the cuts needed for budget balancing."

"This year has been called 'the year of decision.' For the first time in 16 years of budget deficits, the American people have a chance to make a clean-cut decision on the spending policy of their government."

It is clear to those legislators, as it is to millions of uneasy Americans, that the government's recklessness in spending is causing far more inflationary pressure in this country than all other factors put together.

Life on the Farm

Remember the pitiful Joad family of the "Grapes of Wrath"? Remember "Factories in the Fields"? Farm families were being driven from the sunny land of California into virtual serfdom, we were mournfully told. Soulless agricultural corporations were gobbling up the little farms. It was a sad picture—but it was as false as Henry VIII's marriage vows!

All the while that those books were jerking tears, California farms were growing in number—and getting smaller, as a State Chamber of Commerce survey revealed this week. Thirty years ago, there were 70,000 California farms. Today there are 141,577. Yet the total farm acreage has increased by only five per cent!

"Forty per cent of California's farms are under 20 acres," writes Prof. B. H. Crocherson, U. C. Extension Service, in the survey report. "The average California farm is getting smaller and, I fear, in some cases dangerously so for maintaining the American standard of living."

Here is exposed another instance of alarmist propaganda spread by leftists and dreamers in the apparent hope that it will gain some purpose before it can be publicly disproved. The "big farm" bogey is even now being used by socialistic planners, via the 160-acre farm limitation, as part of the drive to convert the Central Valley Project into a TVA enterprise at the expense of California agriculture and of State rights of sovereignty. Of this phase, the State Chamber of Commerce reports:

"Breaking up these highly developed (Central Valley) farms to satisfy an ancient law enacted for different conditions would disastrously affect agricultural production."

Only California vigilance in safeguarding her greatest industry may keep life on the farm the sound, self-sustaining, serviceable life it is—and always has been—in this state.

ROLL OUT THE BARREL!

DOINGS IN DECOTO

By LEONTINE COSTA

Pvt. Alvin Paniagua spent a 10-day furlough at his parents home here. His sister, Mary, is driving him back to Camp Beale late this week where he expects to be assigned to duty overseas very soon.

Mrs. A. L. Costa and son, Fred, took in the Paul Robeson concert at the San Jose Civic Auditorium. There was also a very good concert pianist on the program who was brought back for several encores.

Pauline Croce passed away here on March 9. She leaves her husband, Victor Croce, and three daughters, Mrs. James Bonauoi of San Francisco, Mrs. Victor Maghaga and Rose Croce of Decoto; and three grandchildren. She was 59 years old and a native of Forino, Italy.

Funeral services were held on March 12 from the Berge Mortuary, thence to Corpus Christi Church where a requiem mass was said. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

Manuel Garcia received a telegram last week from his Australian wife that he is now the father of a son born late in February. The baby weighed seven pounds, and up to this writing no name has been sent to the father. He met his wife while he was with the Navy. She expects to leave for the United States to join her husband very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gonzales entertained Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garcia on their yacht, the Linda, with a fishing trip to Antioch. The trip was enjoyed very much but the fishing was zero.

SCRAPS I CLEAN OUT OF MY PURSE

I believe I'll clean out my purse. This is a semi-annual event that yields as many surprises as the periodic examinations of the crevices in the sofa.

Let's see now. What have we here? A key. Looks familiar. Well, well, think of that! It's the house key! What wouldn't I have given to be able to have found it that time I had to make that perilous trip through the window, landing on the floor looking as though I had come through Tarawa rather than through a mere window.

And there! Dear, dear. Red tokens. I'm beginning to feel nostalgic, thinking of those wonderful days when sixteen of these innocuous looking things could get you a pound of butter. But let's not talk about butter.

Now here's an interesting little item. Just a ticket, bearing the words "RETAIN THIS COUPON." The corners of it are dog-eared. I have obviously been retaining it for quite a while. Should I keep on retaining it? No, I believe I'll throw it away. But on second thought, if I throw it away, I may come to regret this impulsive gesture. There must have been a reason why I started retaining it in the first place. Goodness! This is driving me crazy!

Here's something! A card saying, "Valuable! Read Carefully! Send in attached guarantee card at once. It places your name on our records and assures you against loss of guarantee privilege. Fill in the card and mail it NOW. NO POSTAGE REQUIRED."

Isn't that intriguing? I am simply seething with curiosity. What am I guaranteed against? It's obvious I must have sent the attached card in, because it is no longer attached. Perhaps it was that "No Postage Required" that made me send it in. I'll send in anything as long as I don't have to pay postage on it. But this is getting nowhere. There must be some way I can find out what I am guaranteed against. It is the most baffling feeling in the world, knowing you are guaranteed, and not knowing what for!

But let's get on with this excavation. Now here's a postage stamp stuck on to a piece of chewing gum. Which shall I try to save? I can't have both, because prying one from the other will of necessity mean that one will be destroyed. The postage stamp is worth three cents, and gum—well, gum is hard to get. Besides, what I need right now is a good chew. Ah, this looks like a recipe. Hm. Wonder what it is for. It's written in a hand-writing I don't recognize... dash of sugar, dash of bitters, slice of orange, slice of lemon—the rest of the writing has faded. I can't make it out. Provoking, isn't it? And it may have been the beginning of a good cake recipe!

Good heavens! What's this! A card with these words: "Dear Mr. and Mrs. Batman: Mrs. Roe joins me in congratulations on the arrival of a new Batman. Best wishes for health and happiness to the family."

A "new Batman!" Gracious, wouldn't I know? But of course I would. Could it be—Yes, it MUST be. It's our youngest, now seven years old.

And this—well, this actually gives me palpitation. It is a prescription. There are a lot of funny looking characters on it. Could be Chinese. Have I ever gone to a Chinese doctor? No, I'm quite sure I haven't. Goodness, if I still have this prescription, it means that I have never had it filled. Oh dear, what was it for! What could I have had! Have I still got it now! If I didn't have the prescription filled, of course I've still got it now! I could go back to the doctor, couldn't I, and find out? No, I couldn't go back to the doctor. Doctors are funny. If you don't have your prescriptions filled they give you a cold look which means they are washing

Once again we can say

"NEXT TIME, TRY THE TRAIN"

At long last we can see our way out of the woods. No longer is there a backlog of veterans waiting for transportation to their homes. The peak movement seems to be definitely over.

We want to sincerely thank all the civilians who refrained from traveling to make room for these men. And we want to point out that now some space is available on some Southern Pacific trains for you who wish to travel.

In other words, we can say "Next time, try the train", but as yet we can't say it very loud.

There is now quite a bit of space available in coaches and chair cars. Sleeping car space is tighter in comparison, but considerably more plentiful than it was, especially on certain trains.

Please call us if you're planning a trip anywhere. We'll do our best to get you the reservations you want.

No time limit on reservations

On and after March 15, you can make reservations as far in advance as you wish. The ODT order requiring you to make them no more than 14 days in advance has been repealed.

Three meals a day!

Dining cars on Southern Pacific trains are now serving three meals a day instead of two.

More improvements on the way

With our heavy war load easing, we will soon speed up trains and return the lounge cars and other refinements in service that we had to discontinue during the war.

Meanwhile we are going full speed ahead with an ambitious program of new streamlined trains that will be the finest the world has ever seen.

GROWERS ASK FOR GREATER AMOUNTS OF INSECTICIDES

The state's vegetable growers, speaking through the California Farm Bureau Federation, have asked their organization to take aggressive steps to supply the industry with an adequate tonnage of nicotine sulphate or acceptable substitutes, it was announced today by Melvin Nielsen, president of the Alameda County Farm Bureau.

Quoting the resolution adopted recently by the California Farm Bureau Federation's Vegetable Department, Nielsen said that "it appears 1946 supplies of these insecticides will be 50 per cent less than the amount needed by the state's fruit and vegetable producers, and that many crops cannot be produced successfully without these essential materials."

In another resolution, the California Farm Bureau Federation is urged to make a survey to determine why ample fertilizer supplies which were expected to become available when manufacturing of munitions ceased, still cannot be obtained by growers.

As in the case of the state's fruit growers, the vegetable pro-

DRIVER HELD FOR HIT-RUN AFTER DECOTO INJURY

Claude H. Warner, 30, Porterville agricultural worker, this week was held to answer to the Oakland superior court on a hit-run charge after an accident two weeks ago involving Mrs. Inez Santiago, 66, 218 Fifth street, Decoto.

Warner, father of five children, is being held in jail in lieu of $500 bail. He was arrested after he was chased through the streets of Decoto by David Janeiro, Paul Paniagua and Cyrus Caldeira. Highway Patrolman Alfred Wheeler testified fire marks indicated Warner had been driving on the wrong side of the road for over 200 feet and that Warner has said he had "been sleepy and got scared" when he saw he had hit someone.

Mrs. Santiago is still at Highland Hospital with a fractured pelvis.

ducers also favor the development of the an Francisco "Farmers Free Market" as a permanent institution with modern facilities; and believe that adequate terminal produce markets throughout the nation will aid both growers and canners. "More efficient markets," said Nielsen, "will reduce distribution costs between producers and consumers to the advantage of both groups."

For more than six months, your gas and electric company has been carrying on a consistent national advertising campaign to bring new business and industry to Northern California.

This advertising with colorful illustrations has been keyed to one dominant theme—"Northern California, the industrial center of the new Pacific World."

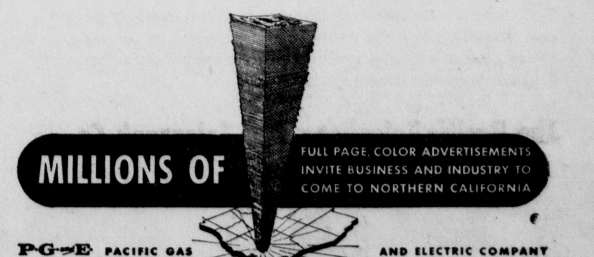

Four main objectives, important to every community in this area, have been the goal of this series of advertisements. These objectives are:

1. To hold much of the wartime gains of business and industry as permanent assets here.
2. To help in the reconversion and expansion of existing business and industry.
3. To attract new business and industry to Northern California.
4. To absorb in productive work the greatly increased population, the recently acquired force of skilled labor and the thousands of veterans who plan to live and prosper in Northern California.

Already we have abundant evidence that our national advertising has opened many eyes and minds throughout the Nation to the great future shaping up for this region.

This ambitious program is being carried on in complete cooperation with local committees, service clubs, industrial groups, chambers of commerce and other civic organizations.

PATROL SERVICE OFFERED NILES

Inquiry into the interest of the Niles Chamber of Commerce in establishing a private night patrol service in Niles was made by Al Ware, special officer, when he appeared at Tuesday's meeting with Eldon Cardozo and Manuel Silva, who recommended him to the business men.

Ware, who presently is serving Niles liquor establishments on week-end nights, states that his plan is to collect his fees from individual businesses in proportion to the extent of services required, and possibly from some private residences.

In order to operate, he explained, about $300 per month in fees is necessary.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

WITH LOIS JUSTUS

A really, truly swell celebration, just like before the war, was held and enjoyed by a very large crowd at the grand opening of Our Place on the Niles Highway, about a mile and a half from the Mission, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Castro, owners and operators of the old "Our Place" here in town for the past ten years, have built a brand new place and invited all their friends and neighbors to come on Saturday to a luscious barbecue and dancing.

There was a huge crowd present with friends from Los Gatos, Alameda, Walnut Creek and many other points for miles around and, of course, all their friends acquired in the Mission in the past ten years. Good luck and prosperity, Frank and Faye.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gonsales and son, Frank, of Dos Palos, and a friend, Miss Dorothy Alargo, visited the Joseph Rocha home here in the Mission over the week-end, later going to San Jose with Miss Mary Rocha and her brother, Joe, to visit friends and relatives.

Joe Gomes, Mission Bell proprietor, was confined to his home in Oakland for a couple of days with the flu. However, he is back on the job again.

Father Manuel Rose of Patterson, former assistant here at St. Joseph's Church, spent the week-end here with Reverend Father John Leal.

Louis Souza and LeRoy Costa who are now employees of the P. G. & E. out of Willets, spent the week-end here at the home of their parents and attended the grand opening of Our Place on the Niles Highway.

Mrs. Elsie Wilcox has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lois Justus, from a two weeks' stay in Redwood City with a son, Floyd Cross and family. But she is still under the care of a doctor following a long siege of the flu.

Miss Rose Mary Telles and her friend, Miss Arlene McNemar, went by bus to Modesto on Saturday to spend the week-end at the home of her aunts, Mrs. Kahn. Mrs. Rose Telles and her son, Leonard and wife and two sons, motored down on Friday evening to the Kahns and all returned on Sunday evening.

Alfred Bonner and daughter of Alameda spent two days here with

Those who received their award pins were Claire Ariato, Carmelita Andrade, Joy Ann Duarte, Emma Jean Farrell, Claire Ferreira, Suzanne Gorman, Annamie Grimmer, Mary Lynn Lamoreux, Joan Monighetti, Donna Lee Moore, Jo Carolyn Morrison, Beatrice Perez, Geraldine Rebello, Joyce Rebello, Carol Rogers, Patsy Rose, Joan Vervais and Mary Nell Walthall.

The party took place at the Meyer home here on Ellsworth street. She received many beautiful gifts and besides a very beautiful birthday cake especially for her, there were two home-made cakes also. An unprecedented program for long distance expansion

Thousands of miles of new circuits will be built on the Pacific Coast

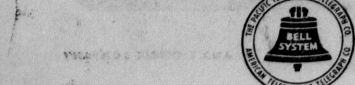

During 1945, we handled more than 346 million long distance calls . . . an increase of some 57 million over the previous year. That means we handled close to a million calls every day.

To meet the ever-increasing demand, we are now making an unprecedented expansion in long distance facilities on the Pacific Coast. Thousands of miles of new circuits are being built; special vacuum tube equipment is being installed to boost the number of calls existing lines can handle; new toll and long distance switchboards are being added.

Yes, we're expanding long distance facilities in many ways and preparing for the many new improvements to come. We're on our way to providing a better long distance service than you ever dreamed possible.

Localites Return From Mexico Trip

"The next vacation I take will be spent some place in California," Thus spoke Miss Flora McKeown of Alvarado, who returned via air last week from a trip to Mexico, Guatemala and Yucatan, in the company of three other localites, Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson, and Harry Stevenson.

You can gather from Miss McKeown's above remark that the trip to Mexico wasn't too successful. "The accommodations are not good at all," said Miss McKeown. "You see, there are 1000 tourists going through Mexico every day. With the increase in the number of tourists, you get a corresponding decrease in the quality of service. For instance," she continued, "in many hotels the water is turned on for only a couple of hours every day, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. And it was always cold! After traveling for several hours and looking forward to some good hot bath water, it was a most distressing situation."

However, Miss McKeown added that part of their trip was very enjoyable indeed. The trip into Guatemala, for example, where they had delicious fresh strawberries and other lush fresh fruits and vegetables. The party also felt that the Mayan ruins in Guatemala were well worth seeing.

This was Miss McKeown's second trip into Mexico.

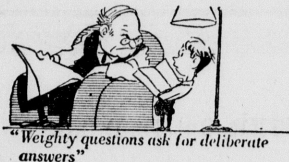

Agnes Silva Betrothed To LeRoy Gomes

Joining the ranks of the brides-to-be this week is Miss Agnes Silva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Silva of Niles, who has announced her engagement to LeRoy Gomes, son of Manuel Gomes and Mrs. Rose Harvey.

Miss Silva, a graduate of both Niles grammar school and Washington Union High School, is presently employed as secretary in Attorney E. A. Quaresma's office in Niles. Her fiancé, who also attended the local schools, received his discharge from the Coast Guard in December after serving for two and a half years.

According to present plans, the wedding will not take place for at least six months.

Mrs. Musick Hostess To Decoto Club

Mrs. Dorothy Musick was hostess to the Decoto Discussion Group Thursday, March 7, at her home. An inviting luncheon was served at noon. The table arrangement of golden daffodils and blue hyacinths and several lovely miniature arrangements of violets were delightful messengers of spring.

The program was a study of fiction by a foreign author. The leader, Mrs. Anna May Compagna, chose "The Ballad and the Source" by Rosamund Lehmann. As the book was one of the most subtle ever read by the group, the usual routine was varied. Three people were invited to be present and answer questions puzzling to the readers. They were Mr. Farrier, Hayward librarian; Miss Marie Bruguiere, head of the fiction department of the County Library; and Miss Eda Beronio of Mission San Jose. The questions were legion and the three speakers plunged into the subtle maze of the book with courage and ability, provoking a most interesting and forthright discussion. Miss Beronio questioned the genuineness of the author and her literary technique but Miss Bruguiere did not agree. She brought out a most interesting and thoughtful explanation of the title. Mr. Farrier was inclined to interpret the main character more kindly than the other two. All in all, it was a most interesting meeting, on a lovely spring day, at the home of a most gracious hostess.

The two other guests, Mrs. Alderson of the Oakland library staff, and Mrs. Farrier had both read the book and contributed to the discussion.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Florence Wallace. Mrs. Frances Mara will lead on biography and has chosen the story of Jack London, A Sailor on Horseback, by Irving Stone.

Engagement Shower For Yvonne Young

A linen engagement shower, honoring Miss Yvonne Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil P. Young of Niles, was given last Saturday night by Miss Winifred Dias at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dias.

Miss Young, whose engagement to Herbert Swearingin of Kansas, was recently announced, is presently attending San Jose State. She is a graduate of Washington Union High School.

Her fiancé is with the Navy, stationed at San Diego. There are no immediate plans for the wedding. The table was beautifully decorated with a floral arrangement, by Miss Dias, of calla lilies and spring blossoms. A sailor figurine completed the arrangement. Refreshments were served and later Dutch whist was played.

Those who were invited to attend included the Misses Rosemary McDonald, Gayle Maphet, Dorothy Jackson, Vivian Rose, Harriet Dias, Gertrude Gastelum, and Mmes. Avis Chapman, F. E. Dias, A. M. Alves, Jack Geib, Olive Dias, A. Solon, and the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Young, and her mother, Mrs. Virgil Young.

Pinochle Club at Wallace Home

The Decoto Pinochle Club was entertained Saturday evening, March 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wallace. High score was won by Mrs. Wallace, second by Lester Watkins.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream and marvelous homemade cake and coffee were served, after which the well-reinforced company went into a free-for-all discussion of juvenile delinquency and other menacing community problems and their extremely ludicrous phases.

The next gathering will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Costa. —Elsa Walker.

KRAFTILE TO MAKE BUILDING BLOCKS

This week the Kraftile Company announced the availability on approximately May 1, of "Kraftlite" concrete blocks. According to President C. W. Kraft, the manufacture of these light-weight blocks is another step in the fulfillment of the organization's postwar plan of diversification in serving the construction industry.

James Crawford, vice-president of Kraftile, will be in charge of the "Kraftlite" division and will supervise distribution to the San Francisco bay area.

"Kraftlite" blocks, according to Crawford, will represent controlled quality manufacture of structural units long-established in the building industry. They are inexpensive, fire-proof, and termite-proof and eliminated the cost of forms. The blocks will be manufactured of batched aggregates and pure light-weight pumice.

MAYHEW FAMILY

here from Edgartown in the early days to join their uncle, Jonathin Mayhew, who ran schooners between the Landing and San Francisco Bay points. His wife died when the two children, Annie and William, were very young, and he returned them to Massachusetts to be reared there. Miss Mayhew, incidentally, never returned to the scene of her birth, and is a true "down-easterner."

The house was willed to her by her late aunt Elizabeth Estey Fisher, who was the foremost woman resident of the island in her day, not only because of her wealth and culture but because of her personality and capacity for good works. Miss Fisher collected many fine works of art and antiques in her trips abroad, and housed them in the fine old home in Edgartown.

Mrs. Shinn ruefully admits that most of the fine old collection of art treasures have long since been sold—probably for a song!—or otherwise disposed of. Some of them, however, collected in Spain, have been pronounced by experts to be the most valuable in this country, and have found their way into the Huntington Museum in New York.

Now that the old home is to be restored, Mrs. Shinn, who is a stockholder (the renowned etiquette authority, Emily Post, is another stockholder, by the way) is more anxious than ever to make a trip back to the land of her forefathers, and view first-hand the scenes of Edgartown, that she has heard about ever since a child but never seen.

REG'LAR FELLERS—Back Talk

OFFICERS TRADE THEIR BARS FORS 'ZEBRA' STRIPES

Wartime officers released from active duty are trading their brass for the "zebra" stripes of a master sergeant or first sergeant—and like the idea. Scores of former officers, ranking as high as full colonels, have shed their bars, leaves and eagles to enlist in the Regular Army in the top enlisted status. Major D. A. Gaylord, head of the local Recruiting Station, Room 210, City Hall, San Leandro, disclosed that from 30 to 40 ex-officers are entering the Army from the northern California district each week. Here's the reason why:

Many officers, commissioned since the outbreak of the war, have years of service behind them as enlisted men in the old Regular Army. And these professional soldiers desire to return to their enlisted status so that they might retire after 20 or 30 years' service. The statutory retirement age for an officer is 64. Young Air Corps officers, not absorbed in the post-war air force, form a large bulk of enlistments. While these former fliers will not retain their pilot ratings, they will have an opportunity of becoming crew members and mechanics. At the same time, they will keep their reserve commissions.

Released officers have three months after date of discharge or terminal leave to enlist in the top pay grade of either master or first sergeant. And many former officers, along with hundreds of ex-G.I.'s, reenlist in the Army after a brief twirl at civilian life.

ROLLER SKATING RINK WILL OPEN IN NILES

Another roller skating rink is to open in the township, this one to be located at the Garden of Allah hall near Niles.

W. Deering, who also operates a rink in Watsonville, has leased the hall, and will open Friday, April 5, with brand new skates and special floor entertainment. Mr. Deering is connected with the California Skating Rink Operators Association.

A new music system will be installed, and the latest electric-recording skating records will be heard. Two floor managers will be on duty at all times, to maintain strict order.

WEATHER MAN HAS TO HAVE SHORTAGES, TOO

Well, they wanted rain, and they got it! The rain storm last Tuesday night was a heavy one, even though it cleared up by morning. The rain gauge at the S.P. depot now reads 12.68. Last year at this time, it stood at 16.12; so the weather man must be having to contend with shortages, too.

Farm Advisor T. O. Morrison of Hayward says that the rain storm did little or no damage to the apricot crop.

FARM NEWS—AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

GET OUT AND DIG AGAIN

President Harry Truman has appealed for home food production again this year. During the war years, vegetables and poultry and rabbit meats were produced in backyards and many had family cows and butchered and stored pork and other meats at home. Many turned to the home apiary to supplement sugar.

The same backyard garden plots which produced 40 per cent of the fresh vegetables for home consumption during the war years could also release considerable commercial production for relief of the hungry abroad.

Assistant Farm Advisor P. T. Meyers has a word of caution about backyard poultry production in face of the present feed shortage. Feed is just hard to find at present, and he suggests any one thinking about producing eggs or poultry meat in the backyard should first make certain of his feed supply.

If you have waste or other feed for growing the family pork, it might be wise to kill some of your own meat again this year. The family cow will again find a place in many rural homes.

The farm advisor says the Agricultural Extension Service will be pleased to supply literature or advice in home food production, covering a wide range of subjects.

In everything you can produce at home you may be helping to that extent to feed the world's hungry millions.

BE THRIFTY WITH BREAD

If every person in this country would save just half a slice of bread each day, the nation could save daily half a million pounds of bread. This thrift in the use of bread would help hungry people abroad.

Besides the familiar uses of crumbs in coating foods for frying and topping baked dishes, and stuffing vegetables or meat, there are the bread crumb specials—crumb pastry for cream pies, crumb cake, and crumb cookies.

WORLD FOOD PROBLEM

Three chief causes for the world food problem are given by the U.S. Department of Agriculture:

2. Concentration of this reduction chiefly in countries normally dependent on imports.
3. Disruption or distribution in wartorn nations.
